TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

MARKET SQUARE

Presbyterian Church

20 South Second Street ▪ Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

NOVEMBER 8, 2026 ▪ 11:00 A.M.

Ernest Karlovich Lipgart (Estonian 1847-1932), The Parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins. 1886. Location unknown. Public Domain.

God's kingdom is like ten young virgins who took oil lamps and went out to greet the bridegroom. Five were silly and five were smart. The silly virgins took lamps, but no extra oil. The smart virgins took jars of oil to feed their lamps. The bridegroom didn't show up when they expected him, and they all fell asleep.

In the middle of the night someone yelled out, "He's here! The bridegroom's here! Go out and greet him!"

The ten virgins got up and got their lamps ready. The silly virgins said to the smart ones, "Our lamps are going out; lend us some of your oil."

They answered, "There might not be enough to go around; go buy your own."

They did, but while they were out buying oil, the bridegroom arrived. When everyone who was there to greet him had gone into the wedding feast, the door was locked.

Much later, the other virgins, the silly ones, showed up and knocked on the door, saying, "Master, we're here. Let us in."

He answered, "Do I know you? I don't think I know you."

So stay alert. You have no idea when he might arrive.

Matthew 25:1-13 "The Message" version

MARKET SQUARE
Presbyterian Church
A Beacon of Hope on the Square

OUR MISSION

To proclaim and live the Good News of Jesus Christ by welcoming friend and stranger alike into our diverse and inclusive family of faith regardless of race, class, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or worldly condition of any kind as we celebrate our gifts, work for justice, peace, and a sustainable environment, reach out in mission, and witness to God's transforming love.

Children's Ministry

Children of all ages are always welcome! There are two shelves in our Narthex (at the back of the Sanctuary) with sequin boards, crayons, markers, coloring sheets, and puzzles as well as a few library books that go along with the theme of the worship service. From September through Memorial Day, education for children K-6 is offered in the Children's Education Room (Level 4) immediately following the children's sermon (around 11:15 a.m.). Every Sunday, nursery care is available for children (infants through 5-year-olds) in the nursery on the fourth floor. The nursery is staffed by Sidney Dame, our nursery caregiver, and volunteers.

The Beacon Light

Want to stay in the loop? The Beacon Light is our weekly email that goes out every Wednesday, featuring sermon previews, upcoming events, music for Sunday worship, and updates on our church family and friends. To sign up, simply contact Nancy in the church office or you may do it through our website.

Parking Validation

Market Square Presbyterian does not own the garage but is pleased to subsidize parking for worshipers as our gift to you today. Parking validation is available in the atrium before you leave. Please have your license plate number ready to give to a staff member. The garage has a new procedure this year, and we want to make sure you get out smoothly!

Welcome, Visitors!

We're so glad you joined us for worship today! Please take a moment to fill out the yellow visitor card in your pew and place it in the offering plate or hand it to an usher. If you have any questions during your visit, our ushers are here to help. You'll find them at the back of the sanctuary wearing "Usher" name tags. They'd be happy to answer your questions, direct you to the restrooms or a drinking fountain, explain our parking arrangements, or help in any way they can. If you'd like to learn more about our community, the best place to start is our website at marketsquarechurch.org or our Facebook page at facebook.com/MarketSquareChurch.

Media & Privacy Notice

The church regularly uses photos, videos, and audio recordings of services and programs for printed materials, its website, and social media (Facebook, Instagram, and YouTube). Worship services and some events are livestreamed. Leaders (pastors, musicians, speakers, etc.) will appear on camera, and the backs of congregants' heads may be visible. If you prefer not to appear on camera, please sit on the right side (as you're facing the pulpit) near the wall and stained glass windows. During Communion, use the right-hand line, which is not on camera. Unless you tell us otherwise, the church assumes permission to use your photo or likeness. If you do not wish to be included, please contact the church office.

WE APPROACH GOD

TOLLING OF THE BELL

Today we gather for worship and hear Jesus' parable of the ten bridesmaids, a story that invites us to reflect on faith, readiness, and keeping our lamps burning. Through the sermon, "Not Enough Oil," we'll consider what it means to live faithfully as we wait and watch for God's presence. We are glad you are worshiping with us today. This is holy ground. Please silence your electronic devices.

WELCOME — The Reverend Allison R. Smith

VOLUNTARIES — Keep Your Lamps Trimmed and Burning — arr. Billy Brandt
Give Me Joy in My Heart — arr. Julie Turner and Kevin McChesney

CHORAL INTROIT — Sing Out a Joyful Song — Dale Wood (1934 – 2003)

Sing out a joyful song in praise, and come to celebrate!
With cheerful heart, give thanks to God for goodness ever great.
Sing new songs of joy, to God lift your voice!
Sing new songs of praise, give thanks and rejoice!
Sing out the hymn, the joyful psalm, the canticle of praise:
and with the builders of this house, your alleluias raise!

† CALL TO WORSHIP (From Presbyterian Outlook) — Alice Hamilton

Leader: Give ear, O my people, and listen to the words of my mouth.
People: We will tell the coming generations of the Lord's glorious deeds and the wonders God has done.
Leader: Let us set our hope in God and not forget the works of the Lord.
People: As we wait, we will tell the story and keep the commandments.
Leader: We come together to worship the living God.

† PROCESSIONAL HYMN NO. 362 — Rejoice! Rejoice, Believers — LLANGLOFFAN

† PRAYER OF CONFESSION — The Reverend Stanley J. Jenkins

God of grace, we have sinned against you by failing to care for one another. We fail to share what you have provided. We allow our fears to make us rigid and unmoving. We have lost our hope. Forgive our sinful ways. Inspire us by your Spirit so that we will be prepared to welcome the Lord when he appears. May our lives here and now be a glimpse of what we hope all may one day enjoy.

† SILENT CONFESSION

† KYRIE

† ASSURANCE OF PARDON

† GLORIA

† PASSING OF THE PEACE

The Passing of the Peace is an ancient Christian practice, a reminder that before we go any further in worship, we turn to one another and declare: you are seen, you are welcome, you belong here.

Leader: The peace of Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.

WE HEAR GOD'S WORD

ANTHEM — Bim Bom — Music and text by Nachum Frankel

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

(p. 854 in the Old Testament section of the pew Bible)

ANTHEM — My Lord, What a Morning — African American Spiritual
Robert Hobby (b. 1962), arranger

My Lord, what a morning; my Lord, what a morning;
oh, my Lord, what a morning, when the stars begin to fall.

You'll hear the trumpet sound to wake the nations underground, looking to my God's right hand, when the stars begin to fall.

You'll hear the sinner cry, to wake the nations underground, looking to my God's right hand, when the stars begin to fall.

You'll hear the Christian shout, to wake the nations underground, looking to my God's right hand, when the stars begin to fall.

GOSPEL — Matthew 25:1-13
(p.28 in the New Testament section of the pew Bible)

SERMON — "Not Enough Oil"
The Reverend Allison R. Smith

WE RESPOND IN FAITH

† RESPONSIVE HYMN NO. 312 — Take Us As We Are, O God — ENDLESS FEAST

† AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Adapted from the Confession of 1967)

With an urgency born of our hope in the coming kin-dom of God, the church applies itself to present tasks and strives for a better world. It does not identify limited progress with the kin-dom of God on earth, nor does it despair in the face of disappointment and defeat. In steadfast hope, the church looks beyond all partial achievement to the final triumph of God.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE & THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERTORY — Keep Your Lamps — African American Spiritual
André Thomas (b. 1952), arranger

Keep your lamps trimmed and burning,
keep your lamps trimmed and burning,
Keep your lamps trimmed and burning,
the time is drawing nigh.

Children, don't get weary.
Children, don't get weary.
Children, don't get weary
'til your work is done.

Christian, journey soon be over.
Chirstian, journey soon be over.
Christian, journey soon be over,
the time is drawing nigh.

† DOXOLOGY NO. 606 — Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow — OLD HUNDREDTH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow.
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Amen.

† PRAYER OF DEDICATION

† SENDING HYMN NO. 384 — Soon and Very Soon

† CHARGE AND BENEDICTION

† CHORAL RESPONSE

As we sing the first verse of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," you may notice people around you reaching for one another's hands. This is a simple sign of our unity in Christ. You're welcome to join hands, hold one another in prayer, or remain as you are, whatever feels comfortable to you.

Congregational Meeting

The Session has called a congregational meeting following the 11 am worship service on Sunday, November 15, 2026. The purpose of the meeting is to elect church officers to serve in 2027 and to elect members of the 2027 Nominating Committee.

Caregiver Support Group

Are you caring for a spouse, parent, family member, or friend? Caring for someone close to you can be both rewarding and exhausting. Finding time for yourself and maintaining your own well-being can be difficult, but you don't have to do it alone.

Join Rev. Anne Ross for a new monthly Caregiver Support Group at MSPC. This group is for anyone who is caring for a loved one and would appreciate a place to connect with others who understand the challenges and joys of caregiving.

We'll gather on the second Saturday of each month, beginning November 14, at 10:30 a.m. in the parlor. For more information, contact Pastor Anne at amross0611@gmail.com.

Week 3: Market Square Matters Stewardship Campaign Update

Thank you to everyone who has already submitted a pledge for the coming year. Your generosity and commitment sustain the ministries and mission of our church, and we are deeply grateful for your support.

While we had a strong start to our campaign, we still have important work ahead of us. This week, we received 10 additional pledges, bringing our total to 77 pledges totaling $389,334.

At this point in the campaign, pledged giving is 5% behind where it was at this time last year. Every pledge matters.

Whether large or small, each commitment helps us faithfully plan for the year ahead and provides the foundation for the ministries, outreach, worship, and care that define our life together as a church community. If you have not yet submitted your pledge, we encourage you to take a few moments to add your voice to this important effort. Hearing from every household helps us build an accurate budget and make thoughtful decisions for the coming year.

You may submit your pledge by:

- Completing the online form through https://forms.gle/ZZ5STZUfrgVFcVAE9
- Emailing your pledge to sheaffer@marketsquarechurch.org
- Calling Michelle at 717-257-1270 ext. 17

Thank you for your prayerful consideration and for all the ways you support the mission of Market Square Church. We are grateful for every response and look forward to what we can accomplish together in the year ahead. "Every pledge counts. Every voice matters. Every gift makes ministry possible."

Online Advent Retreat: Seasons of Growth and Rest

This Advent, you're invited to explore a different kind of growth—one that requires intentional rest. In a work-obsessed culture, it's easy to forget that deep growth requires deep rest. We'll use the image of a tree throughout the season. Even in winter dormancy, trees are growing deep roots, unseen. We need seasons like that, too! Our online Advent retreat will include daily prayers, readings, and practices to help you step away from the holiday hustle and tend to your soul, spirit, and relationship with God. We'll also gather on Zoom each Sunday of Advent at 7 p.m. to pray, share, and reflect.

Please email Allison if you'd like to participate. The deadline to sign up is November 24.

Harvest Pie Sunday — November 22

Start your Thanksgiving week with pie and fellowship! Bring your favorite pie to share on Harvest Pie Sunday. Sign-up sheets will be available in the atrium, and pies should be dropped off before worship. If possible, please bring your pie already sliced and ready to plate. Our deacons will take care of the rest, and slices will be available following the 11 a.m. worship service. We hope you'll join us for this sweet start to Thanksgiving week!

NEXT SUNDAY: NOVEMBER 15, 2026

December 6: Discerning Market Square's Homelessness Ministry

Following 11 a.m. worship, join us for a light lunch and a congregational conversation about how Market Square can continue to welcome and support our unhoused neighbors while caring for the needs of our entire church community.
As a Matthew 25 church, we are called to offer compassion and welcome. Together, we'll learn more about our current ministries, listen to one another, and share ideas about how we can balance compassion, safety, and respect for everyone who enters our doors.

Your voice matters! The ideas shared will help our Homelessness Task Force develop a plan for moving forward with consistency, care, and a commitment to our mission. We hope you'll join us!

December 13: Carols by Candlelight

Join us at 4 p.m. for Arts on the Square's annual Carols by Candlelight, a beautiful afternoon of music and Christmas celebration. The first half of the program features Handel's Messiah, performed with choir and a 32-piece orchestra. During this time, children are invited to enjoy a special Kids' Corner upstairs in the church, with activities just for them.

For the second half, the children will join the rest of the congregation for a joyful celebration of Christmas carols, dancing, and candle lighting. We hope you'll join us for this wonderful Advent tradition!

Music This Week

Good morning! Today is the twenty-fourth Sunday after Pentecost and our opening voluntaries are offered by the Market Square Ringers. The spiritual "Keep Your Lamps Trimmed and Burning" draws on the biblical parable of the wise and foolish bridesmaids, whose lamps were to be ready for the bridegroom's arrival. Its lively melody and repeated refrain offer a reminder to remain spiritually prepared and attentive, with our light continually shining. "Give Me Joy in My Heart" is a simple song of Christian joy and praise, inviting us to carry that joy outward through our lives. Julie Turner and Kevin McChesney's arrangement captures the exuberance of the text through colorful handbell writing, rhythmic energy, and contrasting textures. Together, these two pieces remind us that the Christian life is both of readiness – keeping our lamps burning – and a life of joy, allowing the light of Christ to shine through us.

The processional hymn, "Rejoice! Rejoice, Believers," is a hymn of Advent hope and joyful expectation. Written by Danish pastor Laurentius Laurenti in the seventeenth century, the text calls Christians to remain watchful as they await the coming of Christ, whose arrival is proclaimed as the fulfillment of God's promises. The hymn is paired with Llangloffan, a vigorous Welsh tune whose memorable melody and strong rhythmic character make it especially suited to congregational singing. Its energy reinforces the text's invitation to lift our hearts and look toward Christ with hope and anticipation.

The Children's Choir will sing "Bim Bom," a beloved Jewish song whose simple, playful melody and rhythmic refrain make it a favorite for communal singing. The words "bim bom" imitate the sound of a drum or heartbeat, creating an infectious musical pulse. Often associated with Jewish community and celebration, the song invites singers to participate through movement, repetition, and joyful sound rather than through an elaborate text.

"My Lord, What a Morning" is an African American spiritual that looks toward the dawning of a new day and the awe-inspiring presence of God. With its repeated refrain, "My Lord, what a morning," the spiritual expresses both wonder and joyful anticipation, drawing on biblical images of the trumpet sounding and the heavens proclaiming God's glory. Robert Hobby's arrangement brings this beloved spiritual into the choral setting with rich harmonies, expressive textures, and a gradual unfolding of energy. The music captures the spiritual's sense of expectation and wonder, inviting us to imagine that glorious morning when God's light breaks through and all creation rejoices.

Our responsive hymn, "Take Us As We Are, O God," is a prayer of humility and trust, asking God to receive us as we are and to transform our lives through grace. The text acknowledges both our limitations and our desire to grow in faith, offering ourselves – our gifts, our struggles, and our hopes – in service to God and neighbor. The hymn is set to Endless Rest, a contemporary tune by David Haas whose flowing melody and gentle rhythmic character complement the openness of the text. Together, words and music create an invitation to approach God honestly and wholeheartedly, trusting that God's grace can take what we offer and make it a blessing.

The offertory anthem, "Keep Your Lamps," is an energetic African American spiritual based on Matthew 25:1-13. André Thomas's arrangement brings the spiritual to life through vibrant rhythms, dynamic contrasts, and rich choral textures. The music builds with an infectious sense of urgency and excitement, capturing both the anticipation of the text and the enduring strength of faith. This spirited setting reminds us to keep our faith alive and our hearts ready to respond to God's call.

Written by gospel musician Andraé Crouch in the late 1960's, "Soon and Very Soon" is a joyful song of Christian hope and the promise of eternal life. Its simple, memorable refrain looks forward to the day when believers will gather in God's presence, where sorrow and suffering will give way to everlasting joy. The song's confident declaration, "We are going to see the King," captures the anticipation at the heart of the Christian faith. With its gospel-inspired character and inviting melody, the hymn encourages us to join in a celebration of hope. Its message reminds us that, even amid life's challenges, we can look toward God's promised future with confidence, joy, and expectation.

Eugène Gigout's Toccata is one of the most recognizable works in the French Romantic organ repertoire. Originally published in 1890, this exhilarating piece is driven by a steady stream of rapid notes in the hands, set against a bold, stately melody in the pedals. The contrast between the flowing passagework and the powerful bass line creates a sense of forward momentum and mounting excitement. Gigout's writing showcases the organ's brilliance and grandeur, building toward a triumphant conclusion. With its rhythmic energy and festive character, the Toccata offers a fitting expression of praise, sending us forth with a renewed sense of joy and celebration.

Music next week – Next Sunday the Sanctuary Choir will sing "It Is Well with My Soul" arranged by David Schwoebel and "Blessed Are Those Servants" by David Hurd. The hymns for the morning will be, "Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise," "Open Your Ears, O Faithful People," and "Rejoice, the Lord Is King!"

~ Tyler Canonico-Dilley

This Afternoon: Arts on the Square Presents the Harrisburg Camerata

We hope you'll join us this afternoon at 4 p.m. for a wonderful time of music with the Harrisburg Camerata! Born out of Market Square's pandemic-era "Quarantine Choir," this exceptional ensemble has grown into one of Central Pennsylvania's exciting new choral groups. Led by our own Tyler Canonico-Dilley, these outstanding singers will perform a beautiful program of choral works accompanied by a chamber orchestra.

You'll hear a wonderful range of music, from William Byrd's joyful Sing Joyfully and Paul Mealor's beloved Ubi Caritas to Moses Hogan's stirring arrangement of My Soul's Been Anchored in the Lord, along with works by Craig Carnelia, Eric Whitacre, and Ethan Sperry. We'd love to share this special musical experience with you!

Please consider a $15 donation to support Arts on the Square and help us continue bringing exceptional music and the arts to our community. Complimentary parking is available in the Market Square Garage. We hope to see you there!

362 Rejoice! Rejoice, Believers

The Latin original of this text based on the parable of the wise and foolish maidens (Matthew 25:1–13) consisted of ten stanzas, but this briefer version is more appropriate for its message of urgency. It is set to a spirited minor Welsh tune named for a Pembrokeshire village.
